PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 17 July 1953 REFERENCES REMARKS 1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. in the Dooberitz training area. A sentry was picked up T-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry the road block was picked up 1.20-mm mortars went from Buchower Neg toward Dallgov. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limite, allegedly because a toy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 3 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and processing toward Buchover Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and processing toward Buchover Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were sen driving view wrea. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar, At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantorment was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueierbog-Altes Lager shipped away with escorting troops wearing black-chipsed away with a colour of the process o	enskih ir dameden dari biras (17 - 17 - 17 - 17 - 17 - 17 - 17 - 17	Approved For	Release 2002/07	15 : CIA-RDP8	0-00810A002100	25X1A 0070003-8	FLD	63
1X EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25X 1C DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF	*COUNTRY	East Germany	Burtannes de Visto de Vistado de Seculo de Sec
PLACE OBTAINED. DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED. 1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasembeddenburg. In the Doeberitz training area. A sentry was picked up 1.7 Juny 1953 REMARKS. 1X 1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasembeddenburg. In the Doeberitz training area. A sentry was picked up 1.7 Juny 1953 Petween 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. on 29 June, two 1.4 Juny 1.20-pm morters went Trom Huddrover Weg toward Dallgev. 1C Respect of Finits, allogedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Monocompliance rendered the offender pulject to severe you is the manual part of the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Budlower Weg. At 7 p.m., six 15-2 tanks were seen driving vice vices. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-pm norters, it 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS tanks practiced firing at Hagenheidenburg. The Hasembeicherberg cantement was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Justerbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with south of the previous in the previous in the previous and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 finiteers which, with an undeterrined cargo, went to Forst Zimma, on 2 July. 25X and 1 boxcar from Staaken to Frankfurt/Oder, on 28 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 finiteers which, with an undeterrined cargo, went to Forst Zimma, on 2 July. 25X July. 25X 2	TOPIC	Military Inform	ation from Doe	beritz	tida (da dilan sirtak cikerari ada kilanda kilanda kerangan kalanda kerangan kilanda kerangan kerangan keranga	mila -man pep distal trommeranasan sahayaa	e van 150 geografikasjent ski zakribilih iliterani ket	geters codación. Trocar
DATE OF CONTENT PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) REMARKS 1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Basenheidenberg. in the Doeberits training area. A sentry was picked up T-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up 1.20-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. 1.20-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. 25X again was put off limits, allogedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 2 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of Albee Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm rortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg centoment was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Justerbog-Altes Lager. Shipped away Loward from Lager and Lager	1X EVALUATION	na era disk en kontrollera mit samkleria si kiden nainne eranna aga draugi. Ladp illeprin	DI ACE O	DTAINED	nut we handle own it is and congress to manner. A service designed	makur mereninkamanika kecapan yangan baharan melapatan	er constant immersioner om den ammerijskale indele k. dik	25X1
DATE PREPARED. 17 July 1953 REFERENCES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. a Type) REMARKS A 1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. in the Deberitz training area. A sentry was picked up 2-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up 120-ma mortars went from Huonower Weg toward ballgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area aftering practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe unstehment. At 2 a.m. on 1 July, stx JS-2 tanks pased through Deberitz, soming from the direction of Altes Leger and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., sty JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice vursa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-cm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks pased through bordered by a truck towing a 120-cm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks pased through parenticed firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg centerment was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Deligow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Justerbog-lites Leger. Shipped away 35X C and Leading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 6 finteers which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zimma, on 2 July. 25X A 1. Compagit. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Deberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training most involved was continued until 2 July. The training proactive involved conty	C	EVIA	PLAGE U	DIAMED	*	ABOUTE CONTROL OF THE STATE OF	CONTRACTOR	Marin Anton 170
REMARKS 1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. In the Deckerits training area. A sentry was picked up Petween 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. on 29 June, two 7-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up At 7 p.m., four trucks towing 120-man mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Beligov. 10. Beginning 30 June, the training area aftering practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment, At 2 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Deckerits, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were send triving vice variate Deckers Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks passed through Deckerits, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks used toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks passed through Deckerits, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks passed through Deckerits, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks passed through Deckerits, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding to a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantorment was occupied as previously. 10. Military shipments listed at the Deligov railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Juneterbog-files Lager, shipped away with secorting troops weering black-boxdered blue epaulets; on 25 June; 1 boxcar Congress Plant in Steaken, to Frishfurt/Oder, on 25 June; 25X Oxygen Plant in Steaken, to Frishfurt/Oder, on 29 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcers and 46 fixters which, with an undeterrined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. 25X 25X 25X June. According to this report, training was continued urtil 2 July. The training probably involved only				DATE DEEDAD
REMARKS 1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Wasenheldenberr, in the Deberitz training area. A sentry was picked up Retween 11 a.m. and A p.m. on 29 June, two Locked Biring at Hasenheldenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up 120-mm morters went Trom Buchower Weg toward Bellgow. 1C Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allogedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment, At 8 a.m. on 1 July, stx JS-2 tanks passed through Deberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward believer Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice varsa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm morter. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks practiced fring at Hasenheldenberg. The Hasenheldenberg centomment was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Justerbog-Fites Lager, chipped sway with escorting troops wearing black-toxidered blue espaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar from the spaulets; on 25 June; 1 boxcar from the converted boxcars and 6 fixteer which, with an undeterrined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. 25X 1A 1. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resused at the Deberitz troop training grounds on 24 June, According to this report, training use continued wrill 2 July. The training ses continued wrill 2 July. The training ses continued wrill 2 July. The training probably involved only				-
1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenbare. In the Deeberitz training area. A sentry was picked up Petween 11 a.m. and A p.m. on 29 June, two T-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up 120-mm morters went trom Buchover Weg toward Dallgow. Deepinning 30 June, the training area Again was put off limits, allegedly because a toy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 2 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Deeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchover Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice varsa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm morter. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantoment was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Justerbog-Altes Lager, shipped away
1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. In the Deeberitz training area. A sentry was picked 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 18 18 18 19 19 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10
1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. In the Doeberitz training area. A sentry was picked UP	IVERALITY MANAGEMENT			* .	•
1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. In the Doeberitz training area. A sentry was picked up 1. Entween 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. on 29 June, two T-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchover Weg toward Dallgov. 1. Eagain was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice varsa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantorment was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops wearing black- bordered blue epawlets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar Coxygen Plant in Staaken, to Prankfurt/Oder, on 25 June; 1 boxcar from J, Staaken to Frankfurt/Oder, on 25 June; 25X 1A 1. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training prochably involved only	Medical half-foliage distributed of a sea man on an execution on the charge							THE HOUSE STATE STATE STATE
1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Basenheidenberg, in the Doeberitz training area. A sentry was picked up	1X	en e	Michaels dialeachd y lachter dans aire à FALVeir deir michaelea	iki, I. nedrovini ili iligandin yoʻzari shik romansuvoti, maqqalarosa,	elet a visit de sus tilo tolonión tilos discontratorios en contratorios. En el	CHERT SMISHRATERION TELEVISION MICHAEL THIS STAY	er egenemente serveze ac se reposte en establisación de	Printer of Charles (due
1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. in the Doeberitz training area. A sentry was picked up T-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up At 7 p.m., four trucks towing 120-mm morters went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. 10 Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm morter. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. 10 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops weering blackbordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar from the proceeding toward station between 25 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 fiatears which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. 25X 10 Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training probably involved only	per tipe de la company de la c	to a began the control of the contro	мен кура учеству постору по сером за векство предвержавани в городина векство.		THE MAIN AND A THE PROPERTY OF	erantine erzer dunne annere bekontrenne sentenne i stenderfor	t; ha ad k indan kolumban, soo ala ma ar h a ndi di	MILITER SERVICE CONTR
1. On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. In the Deberitz training area. A sentry was picked up Petween 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. on 29 June, two T-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up At 7 p.m., four trucks towing 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allogedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 3 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Deberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice varsa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantorment was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops wearing blackbordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar Tom Prankfurt/Oder, on 25 June; 25X Caygen Plant in Staaken, to Frankfurt/Oder, on 29 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatears which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. 25X 25X 1A 1. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Deberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training probably involved only
Hasenheidenberg. In the Doeberitz training area. A sentry was picked up Retween 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. on 29 June, two T-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up At 7 p.m., four trucks towing 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dellgow. 1C Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allogedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice varsa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS-tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. 2. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops wearing blackbordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar company with escorting troops wearing blackbordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar from Staaken, to Frankfurt/Oder, on 25 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatcars which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. 25X 1A 1. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. 3 July. 3 The training probably involved only	1X
and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops wearing black-bordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar 25X Oxygen Plant in Staaken, to Frankfurt/Oder, on 26 June; 25X 1 boxcar from Staaken, to Frankfurt/Oder, on 29 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatcars which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. 25X 1. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training probably involved only	1X	again was put of a firing practic punishment. At a soming from the Weg. At 7 p.m., followed by a tranks practiced was occupied as	d up went from Buch ff limits, all ce. Noncomplis 3 a.m. on 1 Ju direction of six JS-2 tank ruck towing a firing at Has previously.	Altes Lager to were weg tow Beginning togedly becaution rendered they, six JS-2 Altes Lager to were seen 120-mm mortal senheidenberg	t 7 p.m., four ard Dallgow. [30 June, the se a boy had the offender tanks passed and proceeding vice r. At 7 a.m. of the Hasenher	training are been killed subject to through Dog toward Bu versa. They on 2 July, idenberg care.	during severe seberitz, achower two JS-antonment	25X and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatcars which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. 25X 1. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training probably involved only	 1C	and 2 July inclushipped away bordered blue epoxygen Plant in	uded: 3 boxes paulets; on 24 Staaken, to [rs with food with esc. June; 1 box	stuff from Jucorting troops car Frankfurt/G	eterbog-Alt wearing bl Oder, on 26	es Lager. ack-] June;	25X1 25X1 training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training probably involved only			2 boxcars, 12	converted bo	x $cers$ and 46 :	flatcars wh		25X1
	1A 1.	training activion 24 June. According.	ty was resumed ording to this	l at the Doeb report, tra . The trai	eritz troop t ining was con ning probably	raining gro tinued unti involved o	unds 12
							• •
CLASSIFICATION SECRET			4-1-1-1

SECRET
- 2	25X1A
25X1A 2. Comment. Possibly a shipment of artillery units. Div which transferred to Jueterbog for firing practice.	of the 1st Necz
25X1C	25X1C

SECRE